

Quality policy

- To make continuous and persistence efforts to meet customer needs and expectation offering quality textile and garment products and superb service with active expectation of all our employees through a system of constant communication and interaction with an objective of continually improving through implementation of kaizen to meet present and future quality challenges.